TWENTY-SECOND
SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

You have approached Mount Zion
and the city of the living God,
the heavenly Jerusalem.

Hebrews 12:22

AUGUST 28, 2022

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."

Luke 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it's just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

A few words from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners!

One week ago we kicked off a new school year. We are excited to meet and greet some new teachers, students, aides, and parents. Now that school is open and running, we are now pushing the last registrations for religious education classes. This is the last week we will be accepting registrations for this year. Please note that if you miss the registration, your child will have to wait another year to get in. Before you say, "Father is so mean", please remember that registration has been open since June for religious education classes. Three months is long enough to make a decision.

Recently I received a letter from the Archdiocese of Chicago thanking our parishioners for your generosity to the 2022 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal which was held earlier this year in February. We had a goal of $30,980, and already surpassed that goal. So far, we have received pledges of $33,503. That's 108% of our goal! Thank you for your generosity to the Archdiocese and to our parish. All money pledged over goal comes back to our parish. I am genuinely delighted that we met our high goal. The generosity of some of our parishioners is always amazing.

Next weekend we celebrate Labor Day. This was always the official end to summer. Really, it is a chance to relax and give thanks for the gift of work that God has given each of us. Work bestows dignity and we pray that all who seek employment are able to find work.

Enjoy the rest of the summer and God bless you!

Father Andrew

Słowo ks. Proboszcza

Przed nami ostatnie dni sierpnia. Uczniowie naszej Szkoły rozpoczęli już swoje zajęcia. W środę mija termin zapisów na katechizację. A w czwartek mamy już 1 września. To szczególna data w historii Polski, ponieważ tego dnia przypada kolejna rocznica wybuchu II wojny światowej. Chociaż było to 83 lata temu, nie zapominajmy o tych, którzy broniąc naszej Ojczyzny polegli w jej obronie, na tyłu frontach świata, w niewoli, czy w obozach koncentracyjnych. I pamiętajmy też o Ukrainie, która od ponad pół roku prowadzi nierówną walkę z rosyjskim agresorem.

W tych dniach otrzymałem list z Archidiecezji, z podziękowaniem dla naszej parafii za ofiary złożone na tegoroczny Apel Katolicki. Dzięki ofiarności 106 rodzin, cel wyznaczony nam przez Archidiecezję ($30,980) został już osiągnięty a nawet przekroczony ($33.503). Odtąd każdy dolar złożony na Apel wróci do nas na nasze potrzeby, a ja już wiem na co tę nadwyżkę przeznaczę.

Za tydzień, obchodzić będziemy Labor Day weekend. Dla wielu jest to oczywiście szlachetne święto doceniające wkład robotników i pracowników w dobro wspólne jaki jest ojczyzna, ale dla innych jest to trochę smutne święto, bo to nieoficjalny koniec lata w Stanach Zjednoczonych. A to oznacza, że znowu trzeba będzie zabrać się do pracy.

Życzę miłego zakończenia lata i "Szczęść Boże!"

Ks. Andrzej

Unas palabras del Párroco

¡Queridos feligreses!

Hace una semana se dio inicio a otro año escolar. Estamos emocionados de conocer y saludar a nuevos maestros, ayudantes, estudiantes, y padres. Ya que comenzó el nuevo año de escuela, muy pronto también inicia catecismo. El 31 de agosto será el último día que las registraciones para catecismo estarán abiertas. Por favor tomen en cuenta que si no alcanzan a registrar a sus hijos para esa fecha, tendrán que esperar otro año más para registrarlos. Antes de que se pregunten por que no se les ofrece más tiempo para registrarse, recuerden que las registraciones han estado abiertas desde junio.

Acabo de recibir una carta de la Arquidiócesis de Chicago agradeciendo a ustedes, nuestros feligreses, por su generosidad a la Campaña Católica Anual 2022 que tomo lugar a principios de año en febrero. Nuestra meta fue de $30,980 y ya se sobrepasó. Hasta ahora, se ha recibido $33,503 de promesas. Eso es un 108% de nuestra meta! Todo el dinero sobrepasado de la meta se devuelve a nuestra parroquia. Gracias por su generosidad al arquidiócesis y a nuestra parroquia.

Próximo fin de semana celebramos el Día del Trabajo. Este día se considera el fin del verano, ya que todos están de regreso al trabajar y los estudiantes a la escuela. Tomemos este día para descansar y dar gracias por el regalo de trabajo que Dios nos ha dado. El trabajo otorga dignidad y oremos por todos los que buscan empleo puedan encontrarlo.

¡Espero que sigan disfrutando de lo que resta del verano y Dios los bendiga!

Padre Andrew

The Stained Glass Windows of St. Richard Church - #6

This week we share the review of the three east windows of our church whose themes are Christ has Died, Christ Is Risen, and Christ Will Come Again. These three windows, created by Ralph Smith, were installed during Holy Week, March 31 – April 7, 1996. When viewing these three windows, it must be understood that they are not literal renditions of specific moments in the life of Christ, or His promised second coming. However, they are a composite of Catholic/Christian symbols and imagery of events in Jesus' life.

Christ has Died Window

Upper Panels - Depicted here is Holy Thursday - Jesus and the Twelve Apostles seated around the table of The Last Supper - the occasion our present day Holy Eucharist was instituted. Individual pieces of bread, each marked with a small cross, are on the table in front of each Apostle. The lower left of the panel shows two Apostles passing the "cup" chalice. While in the lower right, Judas, one of the Twelve, is leaving to betray Jesus. Also lower right, a rooster, symbol of Peter's three time denial of Jesus. Upper left - the Tree of Life with a serpent, devil, coiled around, and a bright red apple, both symbols of the serpent's temptation and man's future downfall.

The Lord's Supper: "While they were eating, He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it: this is my body. Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." Mk 14: 22-26

Main Panels The overall use of blues, dark blues, and shades of purple - somber colors - convey the death of Christ, sorrow of Mary His Mother, and despair of the Apostles. It must be remembered that at his point in time in the life of Christ neither Mary nor any of the Apostles had any clue of the Resurrection to come.

Jesus had been subjected to Crucifixion, the most brutal of Roman criminal punishments.

"Crucifixion is a method of capital punishment in which the victim is tied or nailed to a large wooden beam and left to hang, perhaps for several days, until eventual death from exhaustion and asphyxiation. The crucifixion of Jesus is a central narrative in Christianity, and the cross (sometimes depicting Jesus nailed onto it), is the main religious symbol for many Christian churches."

Central figure - Jesus on the cross at the time of His death. Red squares symbolize the nailing of Jesus hands and feet to the cross. To the left of the cross an angel in distress, and to the right of the cross, a crying angel with hands covering his face. Also to the right of the cross, Mary, Sorrowful Mother of Jesus, commended to the hands of the Apostles James & John. Immediately to the left of the cross, Lamb of God - symbol of Jesus - with blood pouring from the heart into a gold chalice. Lower left section - Exposed skull lying on the ground signifying "Golgotha" or "Skull Place", where the crucifixion took place. On the lower left corner, a Roman soldier's battle shield, and the spear that was used to lance the side of Jesus. Lower right corner, brown rocks further symbolizing the rocky "Skull Place".

The Lord's Passion and Crucifixion: "At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three o'clock Jesus cried out, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sbachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Mk 15: 33-41

YOUR DEACON DAYDREAMS

Well, it's the final stretch of August. School is back in session, so it's time for me to reminisce on summers past. For years we would load the station wagon including the luggage carrier on top where we would stock goodies or extras for the trip, especially when we visited family. Everyone enjoys a vacation & if you couldn't get away for a stretch, at least a summer picnic after church on Sunday, made the summer special. For the highly organized, a church sponsored picnic was even better. There would be food, games, watermelon, horseshoe or egg toss competitions too. But my favorite memories also include the delicious comfort food people would prepare. Occasionally there was even a pie-eating contest. However, what does that have to do with this weekend's good news from scripture?

In the 1st Reading from Sirach & the gospel from Luke, we hear there is a different kind of eating & for most of it's difficult to swallow, it's called eating "humble pie." In the 1st, "Conduct your affairs with & you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, & you will find favor with God." In the gospel we hear how Jesus went to dine with a head Pharisee in his home noticing the place seating for those in honor. Jesus then related a parable, reminding those who attend a banquet, not to seat yourself in a place where distinguished guests might sit, but rather a more humble spot. And invite to your table, the poor, the lame & blind for you will be rewarded at the Resurrection." For those who humble themselves, will be exulted." Humility is not easy, even for me at times. I recite the Litany of Humility at least once a day so I can get the strength to act accordingly. Print it out for yourself. Here is the link. <https://healingheartofjesus.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/07/Litany-of-Humility-PDF.pdf>. Enjoy these lazy hazy days of summer as long as they may last. See you in church?
