A few words from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners!

We have made it through half of our season of Lent as we come to this 4th Sunday of Lent which is also known as Laetare Sunday. Laetare means "rejoice" which comes from the entrance antiphon of the Mass for this Sunday, "Rejoice, O Jerusalem..." This beautiful theme of rejoicing is seen in the liturgy with the rose vestments, and the theme of "light" in the readings. As we are midway through our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, let us pause briefly on this Laetare Sunday to rejoice that we are approaching the end of this penitential season where we will celebrate our Lord's resurrection. If we have not been faithful to our Lenten penances, this Laetare Sunday can be the encouragement for us to get back to our Lenten efforts to move away from our sinful ways and grow closer to God. If you have not come to the Stations of the Cross on Friday, perhaps come at least one of these remaining Fridays of Lent in order to show Jesus your appreciation for all that He suffered for us.

One of the best ways to prepare for Easter is with the Sacrament of Reconciliation. I encourage and invite everyone to take advantage of one of the opportunities for Confession we have in our parish this Lent: at St. Richard church - all Fridays at 5:00 pm., and at St. Bruno church - all Thursdays at 5:00 pm. and Saturdays at 4:00 pm. If you are homebound and would like to arrange for a home visit for Confession, Communion or Anointing of the Sick - please, contact our parish office.

Have a blessed and grace-filled week, and rejoice!
Father Andrew

Słowo od ks. Proboszcza

Drodzy Parafianie.

To już Czwarta Niedziela Wielkiego Postu nazywana także Niedzielą Radości. Jej nazwa pochodzi od słów dawnej antyfony na rozpoczęcie Mszy świętej: „Raduj się, Jerozolimo.” Ponieważ jesteśmy dopiero na półmetku Wielkiego Postu, to wezwanie do radości wydaje się raczej dziwne. A jednak w tym czasie pokuty słyszymy nawoływanie do tego, by się radować. Myślę, że pomimo poważnego charakteru Wielkiego Postu zawsze można znaleźć jakieś powody do radości i wdzięczności. Za co możemy być wdzięczni? Za wszystko. Za to, że dziś świeci słońce, za zdrowie, za ciekawą rozmowę, za dobry dzień w pracy, za kochającą rodzinę, za przyjaciela, za marzenia, za zwykły uśmiech drugiej osoby, za komplement, którym ktoś Cię dziś obdarzył. Powodów do radości i wdzięczności jest mnóstwo. Jak tylko zaczniemy je dostrzegać, nasze życie się zmieni. A to dopiero początek. Wdzięczność i radość bowiem to winda, która dowiezie nas do nieba. Źródłem radości może też być dobrze przeżyta spowiedź. Dlatego zachęcam i zapraszam do skorzystania z niej jeszcze przed świętami: w kościele św. Ryszarda - w piątki po Drodze Krzyżowej, a więc około 5:00, i w kościele św. Brunona - w czwartki od 5:00 i w soboty od 4:00 po południu. Gdyby ktoś chciałby zaprosić księdza do domu, aby tam wyspowiadać czy udzielić komunii chorym czy starszym - to proszę to zgłosić w kancelarii albo u jednego z księży.

Szczęść Boże na kolejnych tydzień Wielkiego Postu!
Ks. Andrzej

Unas palabras del Párroco

Estimados feligreses.

Hoy es el Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma, que también se conoce como Domingo de Laetare. Laetare significa "alegrarse" que proviene de la antífona de entrada de la Misa de este domingo, "Alégrate, oh Jerusalén..." Este hermoso tema de regocijo se ve en la liturgia con las vestiduras rosas, y el tema de la "luz" en las lecturas. Mientras estamos en la mitad de nuestras prácticas cuaresmales de oración, ayuno y limosna, hagamos una pequeña pausa este Domingo Laetare para regocijarnos de que nos acercamos al final de esta temporada penitencial donde celebraremos la resurrección de nuestro Señor. Si no hemos sido fieles a nuestras penitencias cuaresmales, que este Domingo Laetare sea el ánimo para volver a nuestros esfuerzos de Cuaresma para alejarnos de nuestros pecados y acercarnos más a Dios. Si no has venido a los viacrucis los viernes, animate a venir por lo menos a uno de estos viernes restantes de Cuaresma para mostrarle a Jesús tu aprecio por todo lo que sufrió por nosotros.

Una de las mejores maneras de prepararse para la Pascua es con el Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Animo e invito a todos a aprovechar una de las oportunidades de confesión que tenemos en nuestra parroquia esta Cuaresma: en la iglesia de San Ricardo - todos los viernes a las 5:00 p.m., y en la iglesia de San Bruno - todos los jueves a las 5:00 p.m. y los sábados a las 4:00 pm. Si estas confinado en tu hogar y deseas que un sacerdote te visite para confesión, comunión o unción de los enfermos, comuníquese a nuestra oficina parroquial para programar una visita.

Que tengas una semana bendecida y llena de gracia, ¡y regocíjate!
Padre Andrew

Your Deacon Daydreams

Today not only does Daylight savings time begin & we lose an hour. but it's already the 4th Sunday of Lent. We hear the words from John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son..." It is posted on billboards, license plates, T-shirts, & even hand-written signs at sporting events so millions of TV viewers can see it as the cameras sweep the crowd of fans. For most of us, it's comforting to see. But do we ever pay attention to the rest of the verse? "...so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned." The use of the word "might" three times is significant & one we should take to heart. It's not so comfortable to hear is it? Christ died for all of us, but whoever does not believe has been already condemned. Yikes!

The fact that God's love is forever & unconditional is important but we have a part in salvation as well. We have heard the saying "To know Him is to love Him." Well, the love of God must be lit & fanned by the knowledge of God, for to know Him is to love Him. The greater our understanding of the beauty of God's infinite excellence & love, the more we will adore Him for who He is & for the greatness of the gifts He has lavished on us. The fact that we woke up this morning with a pulse is a great gift. "For God, who said, 'Light shall shine out of darkness,' is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ" (2 Cor. 4:6).

Lent is the perfect time to grow closer to Jesus & reconcile with Him thru confession & reception of the Holy Eucharist. Yes, it's a sad fact that the evil one is always trying to distract & tempt us; keep us so busy that we put God on the back burner. It's our job to keep the light of Christ that was given to at Baptism brightly burning not put it under a bushel. "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine", as the song goes. Light will expose the good. The evil one wants to keep us in the dark, makes us want to hide what we have done wrong. What fools we can be. We work so hard to make things easy for ourselves, we suffer so much so that we might feel no pain. We spend billions of dollars to win millions; we reject others & complain that we are not loved. We turn stumble & fall in the darkness & refuse to come to the light that is freely offered to us all.

While Jesus hung on the cross He prayed to God about us, saying: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do" God heard that prayer. It was answered when Jesus rose from the dead on Easter Morning over 2000 years ago. We do not know what we do when we walk alone, in fear & in the dark. Instead, Jesus invites us to behold the words & ways of God "He who made the lights of the heavens, will light your path."

The last verse in the gospel is powerful, "But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God." How are you doing? We lost an hour, but we still have time to gain back our eternal salvation. See you in church?

A pocos días para celebrar el Sacramento de la Confirmación
We are just a few days away from celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation

Nos emociona saber que nuestros jóvenes del Programa de Formación de la Fe ya casi celebran el Sacramento de la Confirmación. En los dos últimos fines de semana, muchos de los candidatos participaron en el retiro organizado por la Parroquia Inmaculada Concepción y Cinco Santos Mártires, a la que agradecemos infinitamente por acogernos. Unámonos en oración por nuestros candidatos y sus familias por este gran día.

We are excited to know that our young people in the Faith Formation Program are almost celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation. In the last two weekends, many of the candidates participated in the retreat organized by the Immaculate Conception and Five Holy Martyrs Parish, to which we are infinitely grateful for hosting us. Let us join in prayer for our candidates and their families on this great day.

Student are Preparing for Agape Feast / Las Estudiantes se Están Preparando para Agape

The term agape refers to unconditional love. Students preparing for their Agape feast before receiving the sacrament of First Communion are engaging in spiritual reflection, learning about the significance of the Eucharist, and participating in communal rituals that foster a deeper understanding of their faith and the importance of communion. The most famous teaching of Christ on this is from the Last Supper.

El término ágape se refiere al amor incondicional. Los estudiantes que se preparan para su fiesta Ágape antes de recibir el sacramento de la Primera Comunión participan en una reflexión espiritual, aprenden sobre el significado de la Eucaristía y participan en rituales comunitarios que fomentan una comprensión más profunda de su fe y la importancia de la comunión. La enseñanza más famosa de Cristo sobre esto es la de la Última Cena.

Students Honored for Exemplifying Outstanding Character / Estudiantes nradados por Ejemplificar un Carácter Sobresaliente
