THIRTIETH Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

October 23 2022

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Monday: St. Anthony Mary Claret

Friday: Ss. Simon and Jude

Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope & charity, & make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives & reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever & ever.

A few words from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners!

Today the universal Church celebrates World Mission Sunday. We are invited to proclaim the gospel of Jesus to those that are not evangelized. We see them around us and we pray and support the Catholic missionaries around the world. As you give your donation in our second collection you are supporting their mission in some parts of the world. And I am thanking you for that.

Our Parish Pastoral Council will meet this Tuesday. Its members are my official "advisers" in the decisions I must make concerning the life of our parish. If you have questions or concerns you would like brought up, please speak to one of the Council members. The members are: John Poineau – Chair, Andrew Cachro – Vice-Chair, Kathy Kerwin – Secretary, deacon Larry Chyba, deacon Ed Sajdak, Susana Alvarez, Paloma Camarena, Karen Duddleston, Maribel Islas, Leticia Martinez, Eusebio Ramos, Esperanza Reyes, Lourdes Sanchez, George Speck and Elizabeth Ziarno.

The twin feasts of All Saints and All Souls are now just 1 week away. The Church always encourages us, and more so during the month of November, to pray for the deceased. We will remember them throughout the month of November, and in a special way we will offer our prayers during the Novena of Masses for all souls. These Masses will be offered for the names of the departed souls which you will provide us on the All Souls Day Remembrance envelopes.

God bless you!
Father Andrew

Słowo ks. Proboszcza

Drodzy Parafianie!

Obchodzimy dziś Świątówą Niedzielę Misyjną - dzień modlitwy za misje na całym świecie. Dzień ten ma służyć budzeniu świadomości misyjnej, oraz pogłębieniu naszej odpowiedzialności za dzieła misyjne Kościoła. Dlatego też naszą modlitwą ogarniamy dziś wszystkich misjonarzy i misjonarki na całym świecie i wspieramy ich materialnie.

Członkom Parafialnej Rady Duszpasterskiej przypominam o naszym kolejnym spotkaniu, jakie odbędzie się w ten wtorek. Jak sama na to wskazuje, Rada Duszpasterska doradza proboszczowi w sprawach duszpasterskich. Jeśli macie więc jakieś pytania lub sprawy, które chcielibyście, aby zostały poruszone na tym spotkaniu, przekażcie je przez Waszych przedstawicieli w Radzie Duszpasterskiej. Ich nazwiska znajdziecie powyżej, w wersji angielskiej mojego „Słowa” do parafian.

Już niedługo listopad, miesiąc w którym w sposób szczególny modlimy się za naszych bliskich zmarłych. Ich nazwiska wpisujemy na specjalnych kopertach, W intencji tych zmarłych będzie odprawiona Nowenna. Proszę już dziś zapoznać się z planem Mszy na 1 i 2 listopada.

“Szczęść Boże”
Ks. Andrzej

Unas palabras del Párroco

¡Queridos feligreses!

Hoy la Iglesia universal celebra el Domingo de las Misiones. Estamos invitados a proclamar el evangelio de Jesús a los que aún no están evangelizados. Su contribución en la segunda colecta de este domingo es para ayudar a las misiones de algunas partes del mundo. Les agradezco por su generosidad.

Este martes el consejo pastoral de la parroquia se reunirá. Los miembros son mis asesores sobre las decisiones de la vida de nuestra parroquia. Los miembros son: John Poineau – Presidente, Andrew Cachro – Vicepresidente, Kathy Kerwin – Secretaria, diacono Larry Chyba, diacono Ed Sajdak, Susana Alvarez, Paloma Camarena, Karen Duddleston, Maribel Islas, Leticia Martinez, Eusebio Ramos, Esperanza Reyes, Lourdes Sanchez, George Speck y Elizabeth Ziarno. A ellos le pueden preguntar o dejar saber de cualquier inquietud que tengan.

En tan solo una semana estaremos recordando a todos los santos y a nuestros fieles difuntos. La Iglesia siempre nos anima, y más durante el mes de noviembre, a rezar por los difuntos. Recordaremos a los difuntos durante todo el mes de noviembre, y de manera especial ofreceremos nuestras oraciones durante la Novena de Misas por todas las almas que nombraron en sus sobres.

¡Que Dios los bendiga!
Padre Andrew

YOUR DEACON DAYDREAMS

This week, the gospel of Luke visits the lives of two different people, the Pharisee & the tax collector. Even today, I have never met anyone who enjoys paying taxes especially when some of them are used for unjust government sponsored programs like abortion under the guise as health care. Evil at its best for sure. A baby dies, that's not caring for a child no matter how you spell it. The other person is the Pharisee who constantly criticized Jesus & all His ministry especially when He healed the sick or mingled with sinners. In fact, it is noted that the Pharisee took his position in the synagogue, not humbling himself before God, rather, pointing out to God how he is much better than those around himself. His arrogance is definitely right out there but he doesn't recognize that in himself at all. The difference between the two men is very evident to God. The tax collector, instead of putting himself in a prominent position, stood at a distance, beat his breast while looking skyward, asking God for mercy for his sins.

As clergy, we are asked to have a spiritual director, someone who can keep us on the right track not only in our ministry but in our quest for holiness. Not all spiritual directors are priests, some are religious, deacons, & some are even laity who have special training in spiritual direction & are mandated. I recommend one for anyone interested in improving their spiritual life. If you listen regularly to Relevant Radio, you can hear every day at 11AM, a program called the Inner Life with Josh Raymond, & he speaks with a spiritual director about how to keep us on our spiritual journey. I highly recommend it to you. If you are working, all shows are available on their website archives. Relevantradio.com.

One of the tools that all directors recommend is regularly going to Confession, receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The guidance given to us by the confessor as well as absolution is vital for our soul's health. Believe me, even if you have been away for decades, God's mercy is just waiting for you. I guarantee you the church's roof will not collapse if you come in.

When was the last time you went? And while you are it, try fasting one day a week from something, like giving up that fancy Starbucks coffee & putting the money instead in the baby bottle for the Women's Center collection to help women in crisis & their children. God is watching. It's very good discipline for our soul.

The first frost will be soon upon us if it hasn't already happened. It's good for all of us to enjoy the beauty of God's creation of nature's Autumn colors too. Thank you God for your gifts of creation & most importantly your mercy. See you in church?

Deacon Larry email:deaconchyba@aol.com

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life so that we can then work together to respect life throughout the coming year.

A PRAYER FOR PREGNANT MOTHERS

O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties.

Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God's love and compassion.

Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen.

October is recognized as National Domestic Violence Awareness Month. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, about one in four women and nearly one in 10 men suffer sexual violence, physical violence, and/or stalking by an intimate partner during their lifetime. About 11 million women and five million men who reported such abuse said they first experienced these forms of violence before the age of 18. Domestic violence is not limited to physical abuse; it is any behavior used by one partner to maintain power and control over another partner through use of physical, emotional, sexual or financial mistreatment, coercion, intimidation or deprivation.
